To the Teacher: This student is interested in joining the Spanish Immersion Program 2010 in Salamanca, Spain. The Program is an intensive 3-week study experience and includes a family homestay. Our goal is to encourage students to learn about a different culture by living in it and adapting to it, while improving their Spanish language skills. This requires individual integrity, responsibility and maturity on the part of the student. We would greatly appreciate your assessment of this student with regards to these qualities. In your opinion, how would this student react in a foreign living situation that demands flexibility, maturity and true openness to cultural difference? Thanks very much for your time and consideration.
